

The Nordic Africa Institute, the Icelandic International Development Agency and the Ministry for Foreign Affairs in Iceland invite you to the following

SEMINAR

Time: Thursday 7. May 14.00 - 17.00

Venue: Askja, Sturlugötu 7, 101 Reykavík (next to the Nordic House)

“How the Financial Crisis Influences Africa”

Chair: Jónína Einarsdóttir, Professor at the University of Iceland

Speakers:

Ann Pettifor, Executive Director of Advocacy International, London

“The global financial crisis: causes and prospects.”

Fantu Cheru, Research Director at the Nordic Africa Institute, Uppsala

“Crisis, Shock Therapy, the Politics of Conditionality: Lessons from Africa’s Experience with two decades of IMF Conditionality”.

Stefán Ólafsson, Professor at the University of Iceland

“Iceland’s financial crisis: Causes and Social Consequences”

Book launch of

“The Bush is Sweet: Globalization, Identity and Power Among Wodaabe Fulai in Niger”

Dr. Kristín Loftsdóttir, Professor at the University of Iceland, the author will give a brief presentation:

“Risk management at the margins: WoDaaBe agency, migrant work and pastoral livelihoods”

Chair: Carin Norberg, Director, The Nordic Africa Institute, Uppsala